

We have information that in some circumstances the bluetooth adapter can not be found by the sparring and poomsae scoreboard software.

This is most of the time caused by outdated drivers. We are currently upgrading the Bluetooth libraries, which enables the software to recognize Microsoft, Bluesoleil, Toshiba and Widcomm Bluetooth devices. This update is free for all registered users and will be published on this website as soon as it is available.